

Unitek College to Receive School of Distinction Award

The Hayward Campus and South San Francisco Campus at Unitek College will be presented with a 2017 – 2018 ACCSC School of Distinction Award.

Newport Beach, California – August 1, 2018 – Unitek Learning is thrilled to announce that on September 27, 2018, Unitek College will be presented with two 2017 – 2018 ACCSC School of Distinction Awards for their Hayward and South San Francisco campuses. The ceremony will be held at the grand Hilton Hotel in Long Beach, California.

The ACCSC School of Distinction Award commends institutions that have overcome the rigors of accreditation and produced educational programs of the highest quality. As a School of Distinction, Unitek College will be formally recognized throughout the 2018 ACCSC Professional Development Conference. The theme of this conference—A Community of Partners in Education—nicely compliments the overall goal of the event: encouraging student excellence while forming partnerships within the academic community.

The Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC) created the conference to provide various opportunities for accredited institutions. At the event, participants will have the chance to promote student excellence, strengthen support for workforce development, and help fill the skills gap in the United States. Join Unitek College and other school representatives for a celebration of educational achievements at the Professional Development Conference.

This event will feature the following Unitek team members: Dr. Abdel Yosef – Chief Academic Officer at Unitek Learning, Dr. Navneet Bhasin – Chief Operations Officer at Unitek Learning, Katie Ramezani – Hayward Campus Director at Unitek College, and Milo Jocson – South San Francisco Campus Director at Unitek College.

“We are thrilled to celebrate our accomplishments at the South San Francisco Campus and the Hayward Campus,” said Janis Paulson, Chief Executive Officer at Unitek Learning. “It has been a year of growth and opportunity at Unitek, and we look forward to celebrating our success throughout the 2018 ACCSC Professional Development Conference. At Unitek, we care greatly about promoting student excellence.”
