

Unitek Learning Leadership Announcement

Unitek executive is elected to the board of the California Association of Private Postsecondary Schools

Newport Beach, California – January 21, 2021 – Unitek Learning is thrilled to announce that Dr. Navneet “Sunny” Bhasin, their Chief Operations Officer, has been elected to the board of the California Association of Private Postsecondary Schools (CAPPS). The primary mission of CAPPS is to serve the California private postsecondary sector by advocating for the interests of their members and students. They also promote the image of the sector, communicate state and national issues, and offer professional development opportunities.

“We are so thrilled that Sunny has been elected to the board of CAPPS. It’s an honor and a privilege,” said Janis Paulson, Chief Executive Officer at Unitek Learning. “CAPPS is one of the nation’s largest associations representing private, postsecondary colleges. They work to ensure that the needs of the entire sector—from small schools to publicly traded institutions—are met from a policy, educational, and business perspective.”

Since 1985, CAPPS has partnered with elected officials and regulatory agencies that provide oversight to the sector. Every school under this umbrella is accredited or approved by the Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE). With a roster of more than 300 organizations, CAPPS delivers strong member services in the arena of professional development. These services include online or onsite training in important areas, such as admissions, career services, financial aid, teacher training, and educational advice.

“At Unitek, we care greatly about promoting student excellence,” said Dr. Bhasin, Chief Operations Officer at Unitek Learning. “As an institution that provides various healthcare programs, we are committed to educating the next generation. We believe academia and inclusivity are absolutely vital when it comes to supporting the future of healthcare. This is a core belief that CAPPS shares with all of us at Unitek.”

Dr. Bhasin is a results-driven leader with more than 15 years of experience in higher education. Throughout his time at Unitek Learning, Dr. Bhasin has served as Program Director, Campus Director, Regional Campus Director, Senior Vice President of Operations, and now, Chief Operations Officer. He has a proven track record of improving campus performance and growing student populations while maintaining excellent student outcomes.

Unitek Learning is the parent company of several distinguished learning institutions: Unitek College, Unitek EMT, Eagle Gate College, Provo College, and Brookline College. Unitek programs teach the clinical practices and theory used in the field today. Equipped with a multitude of sought-after skills, Unitek graduates are prepared to excel in many of the fastest-growing careers in healthcare and nursing.
